2014 Defense White Paper

Contents

Chapter 1. Changes in Security Environment and Challenges
Section 1. Global Security Environment 8
Section 2. Security Environment of Northeast Asia 13
Section 3. North Korean Situation and Military Threats 20

Section 1. National Security Strategy 34
Section 2. National Defense Policy 37

Chapter 3. Establishment of Firm National Security Posture
Section 1. Maintenance of Omnidirectional Military Readiness Posture 44
Section 2. Reinforcement of Response Capabilities to North Korea’s Nuclear & Weapons of Mass Destruction Threats 56
Section 4. Readiness for Battle Through Combat Training 65

Chapter 4. Reinforcement of Future-Oriented Self-Defense Capabilities
Section 1. Supplementation of Defense Reform and Development 78
Section 2. Strengthening of Combat Power Based on Jointness 85
Section 3. Sophistication of Reserve Forces 89

Chapter 5. Development of the ROK-U.S. Alliance and Reinforcement of Defense Diplomacy and Cooperation
Section 1. Development of a Future-Oriented ROK-U.S. Alliance 106
Section 2. Promotion of OPCON Transition Contributing to Strengthening the Korea-U.S. Combined Defense Posture 114
Section 2. Expansion of Defense Diplomacy and Cooperation 120
Section 4. Contributions to International Peace Through Overseas Dispatch of Forces 131

Chapter 6. Military Measures and Preparations to Address Changes in South-North Korea Relations
Section 1. Military Support for Progress of the Trust-Building Process on the Korean Peninsula 146
Section 2. Guarantee of South-North Korea Cooperation and Humanitarian Support 151

Section 1. Efficiency Enhancement of National Defense Budget Management 158
Section 2. Strengthening Competitiveness of Defense Power Improvement Projects 165
Section 3. R&D for Creative Defense and Activation of Defense Industry 169

Chapter 8. Creation of Proud and Worthwhile Army Service Environment
Section 1. Settlement of Military-Culture Trusted by the Public 176
Section 2. Promotion of Welfare for Soldiers 181
Section 3. Development of Defense Medical System 188
Section 4. Expansion of Support for Retired Soldiers 191

Chapter 9. Promotion of Defense Policy Respecting the Public
Section 1. Improvement of National Defense Restrictions and Promotion of Civil Rights 198
Section 2. Strengthening of the Preferential Treatment for Soldiers Who Participated in the War and Sacrificed Soldiers 204
Section 3. Development of Disaster Prevention and Safety Support Systems for the Public 208
Section 4. Strengthening of the Communications with the Public 212
Appendix

Special Appendix
1. Adjustment of Korea Air Defense Identification Zone (KADIZ) 220
2. Seoul Defense Dialogue (SDD) 225
3. Repatriation of Remains of Chinese Soldiers 231

Appendix
1. Status of Neighboring Countries’ Military Strength 236
2. Comparison of Major Countries’ Defense Budgets 238
3. Comparison of Military Strength Between South and North Korea 239
4. Comparison of Economic Indicators Between South and North Korea 240
5. Negotiation Progress on North Korea’s Nuclear Issue 240
6. Development Progress of North Korea’s Missiles and Resources 241
7. Chronology of South-North Korea Military Relations 242
8. Chronology of North Korea’s Intrusions and Local Provocations to South Korea 251
9. Status of Combined and Joint Exercise and Training 256
10. Joint Statement at the 60th Anniversary of ROK-U.S. Alliance 258
12. Joint Statement at the 45th ROK-U.S. Security Consultative Meeting (SCM) 266
13. Major International Arms Control Agreements and Organizations 268
14. Overseas Dispatch Status of ROK Troops 269
15. Budgets for ROK Military Units Dispatched Overseas 269
16. Annual Defense Budgets 270
17. Changes in Soldiers’ Salaries 273
18. Changes in Compulsory Military Service Period 274
22. Changes to the Army Unit Structure (2012-2030) 285
28. Targets for Force Build-up 285
30. Status of Reserve Forces as of March 2012 285
31. Reservist Training Schedule as of 2012 285

Charts, Tables & Graphs

1-1 The Military Strength of the 4 powers surrounding the Korean Peninsula 16
1-2 North Korea’s Military Command Structure 30
1-3 Key Assets of the North Korean Ground Force 31
1-4 Key Assets of the North Korean Navy 32
1-5 Key Assets of the North Korean Air Force 33
1-6 North Korean Reserve Force 34
1-7 Ranges of North Korea’s Missiles by Type 35
3-1 Organizational chart of the Joint Chiefs of Staff 53
3-2 Organizational chart and forces of the Army 53
3-3 Organizational chart and forces of the Navy 54
3-4 Organizational chart and forces of the Air Force 55
3-5 Organizational chart and forces of USFK 57
4-1 Chronology of OPCON Transition 84
4-2 Alliance Military Structure after Wartime OPCON Transition 85
4-3 Monitoring System for Combined Implementation for SA 2015 86
4-4 The JCS Implementation System under SA 2015 87
4-5 MND Participating Asia-Pacific Multilateral Security Consultative Frameworks 101
4-6 ROK Participation in Arms Control Regimes 104
4-7 Facilities for Demilitarization of Ammunitions 108
4-8 ROK Participation in UN PKO 111
4-9 Major Activities of the Dongmyeong Unit 112
4-10 Major Activities of the Danbi Unit (As of September 2012) 113
4-11 ROK Participation in Multinational Forces Peace Operations (As of September 2012) 115
4-12 Major Activities of the Ashena Unit 117
4-13 Organization of Standing Unit for Overseas Deployment (As of September 2012) 120
4-14 The Organization of PKO Center 121
5-1 Status of repatriated ROK POWs 136
6-1 Major Achievements of the Defense Reform Initiative (2010-2012) 143-144
6-2 Active-duty troop reduction in accordance with the Defense Reform Basic Plan 148
6-3 Changes to the Army Unit Structure (2012-2030) 149
6-4 Changes to the Navy Unit Structure (2012-2030) 150
6-5 Changes to the Marine Corps Unit Structure (2012-2030) 151
6-6 Changes to the Air Force Unit Structure (2012-2030) 152
6-7 Major Force Enhancement Projects of 2011 154
6-8 Major Force Enhancement Projects of 2012 155
6-9 Targets for Force Build-up 156
6-10 Defense Mobilization Information System 162
6-11 Status of Reserve Forces as of March 2012 163
6-12 Reservist Training Schedule as of 2012 165